Student Loans Company

You can apply for your loan before you have chosen your university.

- You need to give the Student Loan Company your bank details.
- Let the Student Loan Company know of any changes for example: if your parental income has changed, the university you choose, you change your course, address, email and so on.
- If you drop-out of university you still have to repay your loan.
- You have to reapply for both loans for each year that you are at university.
